

Thought you should know... Virginia

	Creigh Deeds	Bob McDonnell
Taxes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has left the door open for new tax increases: "I'll sign a bipartisan bill with a dedicated funding mechanism for transportation -- even if it includes new taxes."¹ 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Opposes raising taxes: "The worst thing you can do is to tax your way to prosperity. That's failed in the United States and abroad."²
Spending	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Says he wants to cut spending, but has proposed multiple increases in spending on healthcare,³ energy policy,⁴ and education.⁵ 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has proposed cutting wasteful and inefficient spending across the board:⁶ "We have a spending problem more than we have a taxation problem."⁷

Where do these two candidates for governor stand on important economic issues facing our families? There are big decisions to be made and it is essential to know exactly where the governor will draw the line when it comes to pocketbook issues like taxes and spending.

Please take a moment and review where these candidates stand on economic liberty and the size and scope of the Virginia government.

What we do:

FreedomWorks recruits, educates, trains, and mobilizes hundreds of thousands of volunteer activists to fight for less government, lower taxes, and more freedom.

Why we do it:

FreedomWorks believes individual liberty and the freedom to compete increases consumer choices and provides individuals with the greatest control over what they own and earn.

How we do it:

FreedomWorks' real-time campaigns activate a growing and permanent volunteer grassroots army to show up and demand policy change.

Leadership:

FreedomWorks is lead by our Chairman Former Majority Leader Dick Arme y and our President, Matt Kibbe
